P.C.

The learned Advocate for the appellant states that the main proceedings before the Labour Court have already been finally disposed of and the present appeal arises from the interim order passed by the Labour Court. Since the main proceedings themselves are disposed of, nothing survives in this appeal. We make it clear that we are not expressing any opinion on the view taken by the Learned Single Judge on the point in issue. The appeal accordingly stands disposed of. No order as to costs.
